A REMARKABLE, GOD-CENTERED EDUCATION FOR THE YOUTH OF THE CITY

As you know, Hope Academy is a faith-based school. The school does not require families and students to profess faith in Jesus but only to be open to his teachings. We do, however, desire that all staff members profess faith in Jesus, seek to follow his teachings and commands found in the Bible, and teach and interact with students in a way that upholds Hope Academy's

- Statement of Faith <http://hopeschool.org/about-us/employment/statement-of-faith/>
- Mission, Vision, & Values <http://hopeschool.org/about-us/mission-vision-values/>
- Faith & Life Covenant <http://hopeschool.org/about-us/employment/hope-academy-faith-life-covenant/>

I have read and reviewed the Statement of Faith, the Mission, Vision, and Values statements, and the Faith & Life Covenant for Hope Academy. I also affirm the doctrinal and educational commitments of Christian Schools International (www.csionline.org/about/). If hired, I will support and uphold the goals of the school as expressed through these statements and commitments.
